Dear Ms. Best:

On 11 April 2019, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 10 April 2019 correspondence requesting records under the Freedom of Information Act. This is a quick acknowledgement to advise you that we received your request. Specifically, your request is for the following records:

1. Materials relating to a Stanford Daily (CA) article dated 8 December 1982, titled "Gay couple unsuitable for CIA" (CIA-RDP90-00806R000201030015-9), written by Jim Steyer and Mike Calabrese. Please include but do not limit the search and production to:
2. Materials generated as part of the application process.
3. Materials generated as part of the interview process.
4. Materials generated as part of the refusal to hire either individual.
5. Materials generated in response to reaction to the article.
6. Materials describing the Agency's 1982 policy towards LGBTQIA hirings.

Your request was assigned the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

Our officers will review and process your request in more detail and will only communicate to you if they should encounter any problems or if they cannot begin the search without additional information or clarification. We will search for CIA-originated records up to and including the date the Agency starts its search.

Sincerely,
